

Group Campus Visitation Expectations

CSU Channel Islands is committed to providing access to the campus for groups interested in learning more about the University. Group campus tours are organized with the prospective college student in mind, and are not intended for general school field trip purposes. Our expectations are as follows:

Coordinator Expectations

- Students selected to participate should be pre-screened to establish that they have a genuine interest in CSU Channel Islands
- Please be on time. If your group is late we cannot fully accommodate your visit.
- If your group must cancel your campus visit, please immediately notify Admissions and Recruitment by phone at (805) 437-8520.

Chaperone Expectations

- Visiting groups should provide 1 chaperone per 10 students.
- Chaperones should be actively involved in the visit—participating in the group tour, sharing meals with students, and monitoring student behavior.
- Chaperones should assist in keeping the group visit on schedule.
- Chaperones are responsible for making sure that their students are aware of and understand expectations for behavior as listed below.

Student Expectations

- The purpose of the campus visit to CSU Channel Islands is for each student to seriously explore his/her options in higher education.
- CSUCI expects our visiting students to be respectful of each other, our staff, all presenters, and all facilities and property of CSUCI at all times.

Your cooperation with the above guidelines is greatly appreciated and assures that we will continue to have successful campus visits in the future. If you have any questions about these guidelines please feel free to contact Admissions & Recruitment at (805) 437-8520.
